EconPredictor™ uses the derived predicted production profiles to make economical projections. Provides the usual economical indicators for a well.

- Economic module is a powerful tool that handle the business decision challenges by entering all cost and production forecast. Below are the steps:

  - Define economic calendar and production forecast.
  - Define all the costs and prices.
  - Create economics case for analysis.